YOUR TOTAL SCORE

Listening Comprehension

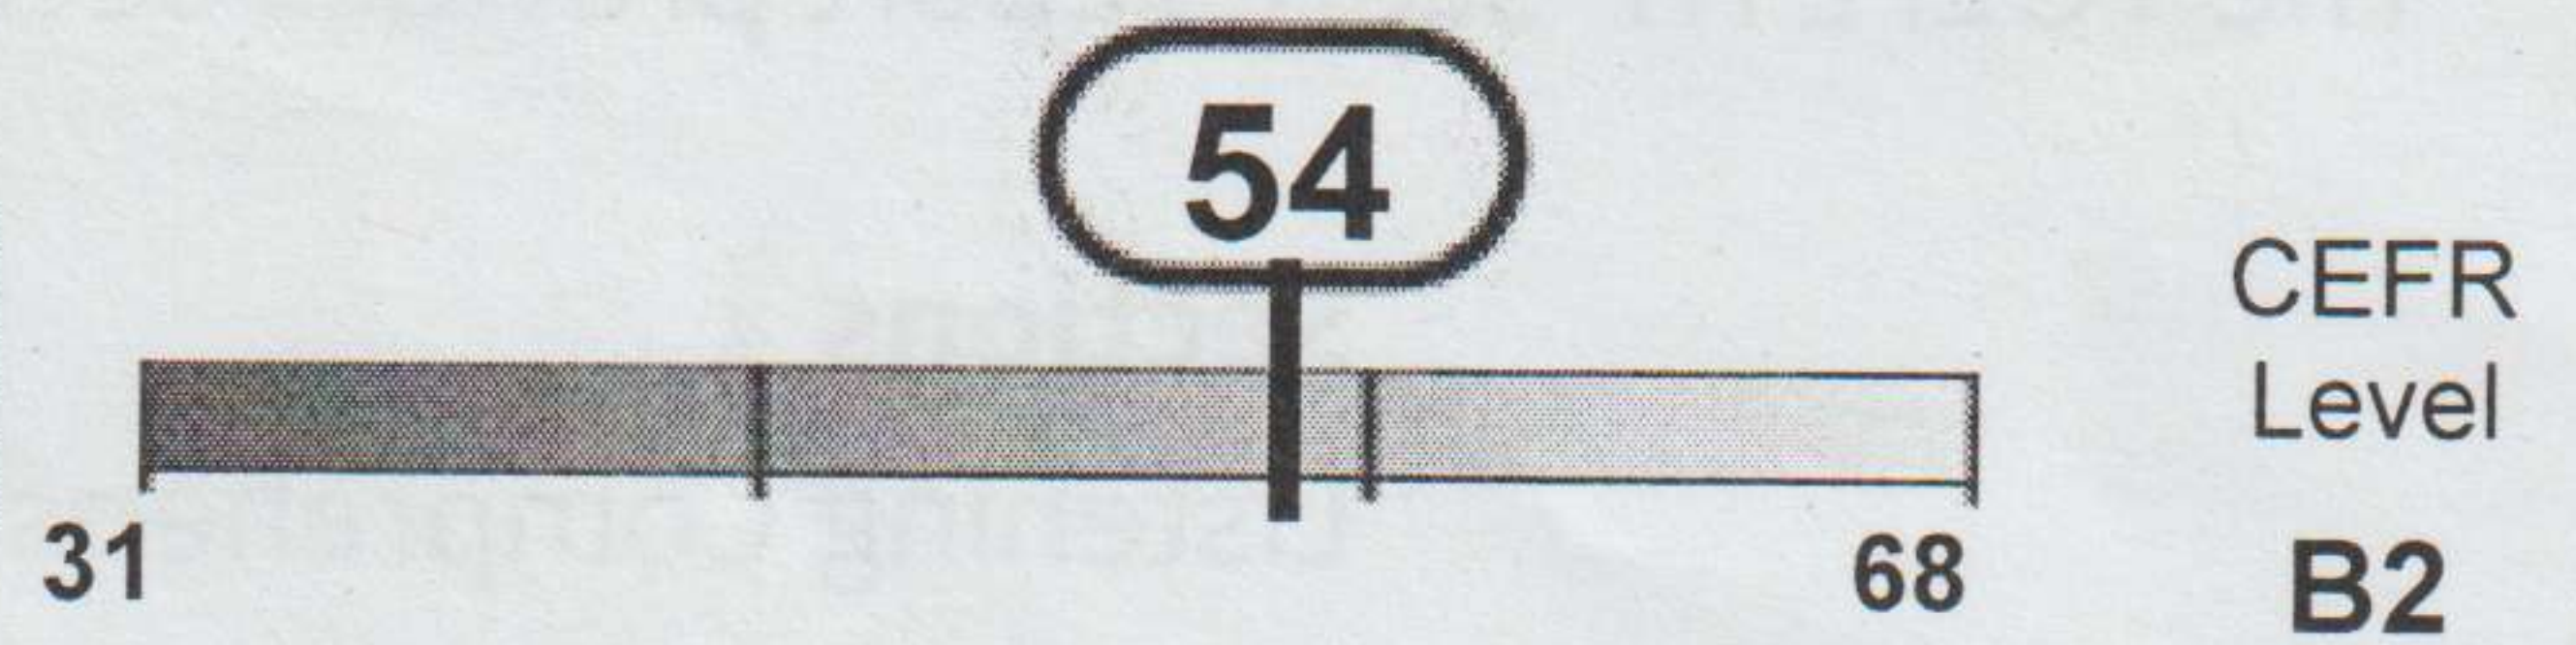

Test takers at this level are usually able to:

When listening to a short dialogue

- integrate information across two utterances in order to understand an implied meaning
- understand the meaning of a variety of idioms and colloquial expressions (e.g., "It's probably for the best," "All I can say is . . .")

When listening to a short academic lecture or extended conversation

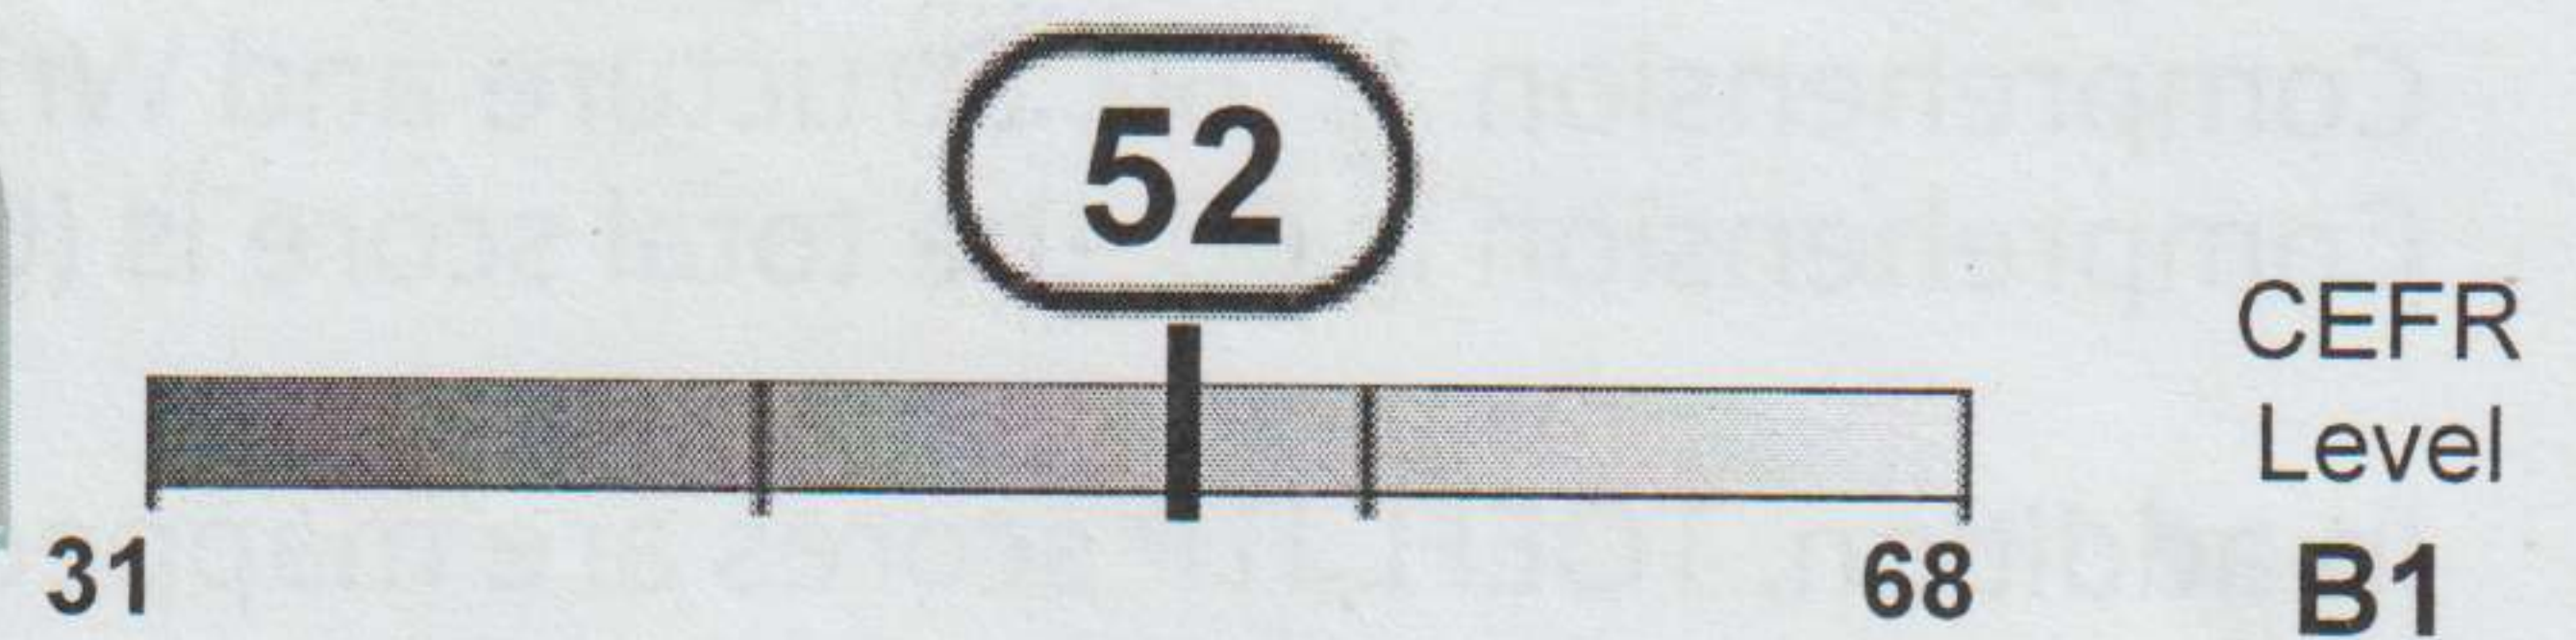

- understand a main idea or purpose that is explicitly stated or reinforced
- understand explicitly stated details that are reinforced or marked as important

Structure and Written Expression

Test takers at this level are usually able to:

- use common tenses of verbs correctly, including passive forms
- use linking verbs with ease and use an expletive, such as "there is" in the absence of another main verb
- recognize when verbs require objects, such as infinitives, gerunds, or clauses beginning with "that"
- introduce a clause with very common words, such as "before" or "if"
- recognize the correct structure of a sentence or clause, even when its subject and verb are slightly separated

Reading Comprehension

Test takers at this level are usually able to:

- understand descriptions of relatively simple processes and narration in well-marked academic texts
- understand high-frequency vocabulary and recognize paraphrased information
- follow sentence-level comparisons and contrasts and understand meaning conveyed by the most common conjunctions, such as "and," "or," and "but"
- connect meaning across some simple sentences that contain high-frequency vocabulary
